REPLY TO WILSON'S LAST NOTE REACHES THE WHITE HOUSE

ALLIED PREMIERS REBUKE

Messages Exchanged Between President and Entente Representatives Show That American Envoy Adheres to Original Adriatic Views

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The reply to the British and French premiers on the Adriatic question was received at the State Department. It was sent to the White House immediately after being decoded.

State Department officials said there is no information as to the nature of the reply, which was drafted within 24 hours after the premiers had received President Wilson's note. In that note, the President adhered to his former position that unless the Adriatic settlement of December 9 was revised in principle he would have to consider withdrawing the peace treaty and the French-American alliance from the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—President Wilson in his reply to the British and French premiers on the Adriatic question to his predecessor, the provisions of the settlement of December 9 must be under serious consideration the withdrawal of the treaty of Versailles and the French alliance from the Senate.

With the exception of this note the exchanges on the subject, including the December 9 agreement and the subsequent agreement, communicated to Jugo-Slavia last month by the British and French premiers, were made public today by the State Department.

There was a memorandum of December 9 submitted to France, Great Britain and the United States, which was rejected by Italy. Then Great Britain, France and Italy on January 14 drew up a new agreement which led to a note from President Wilson on January 19, aking it whether it was the intention of the British and French governments to future to dispose of the various questions pending in Europe, or to communicate the results of the government of the United States, including Clemenceau and Lloyd George, that there were fears in the proposed Flume settlement which could not be acceptable to this government.

Lloyd George and Clemenceau replying under date of January 25 did not claim any intention of making a definite settlement without the views of the United States, but had taken it up at the point at which it was taken when Under Secretary Goldsmith returned to Washington. They felt practically every important point of the joint memorandum of December 9 remained untouched and added that only two features undergo alteration and both these are to the advantage of Jugo-Slavia.

President Wilson replied on February 19. The American government feels that it cannot sacrifice the principles for which it entered the war to satisfy the improper ambitions of one of its associates, or to purchase a temporary appearance of calm in the Adriatic at the price of future world disintegration. The president, wound up his note by saying that if the maximum concessions made in the memorandum of December 9 could not be accepted, the president desires to say that he must be under serious consideration the withdrawal of the treaty with Germany and the agreement between the United States and France (the first American alliance).

Alfred Herold, who had succeeded Clemenceau as premier of France, and Lloyd George replied under date of February 21. They said, in substance, that the foundation for the assumption that the Flume settlement involved a capitulation of the Italian point of view as opposed to the Jugo-Slavia.

France and Great Britain said the president's view with consternation the threat of the United States to withdraw from the community of nations because it does not agree with the pre-terms of the Adriatic settlement. Ethnologic reasons, it was argued, it could not be as only one taken into account.

President Wilson's note of February 19, the last diplomatic paper in the record except the reply to it now on the way to America, begins by saying the President feels that in the present circumstances he has no choice but to maintain the position he has taken all along and reiterate principles enunciated on America's entry into the war.

MEETING OF VETERANS
110TH INFANTRY UNITS

Called by Major McKeon to consider reorganization of Company D, 110th Regiment N. G. P.

Major P. S. McKeon, chairman of the committee, appointed at the meeting of persons interested in the reorganization of Company D, 110th Regiment National Guard of Pennsylvania, has made request of member of the 110th Infantry units, residing in the section who served overseas to meet him at the Union Hotel, Pittsburgh, this evening, to discuss what is being done to the organization.

No program has been outlined by the principal object of the meeting being to obtain expressions of opinion from former members of the 110th Infantry units as to the best method of proceeding with a view to recruiting the new company. The veterans of Company D and the Sanitary Detachment are very much interested in seeing that the reorganized company be starved to recruit, and that it be a permanent company who will have a pride in maintaining the best traditions and reflecting credit upon the record of Company D.

The change in the requirement as to enlisted strength from 100 to 120 men is regarded as tending to simplify the matter of obtaining a select membership. It does not also excuse the members, who are to be permitted to recruit among young men as to who shall be permitted to enroll.

There are upwards of 90 men now resident in this section who served in Company D, and the Union Hotel, Pittsburgh, and the headquarters companies of the 110th Infantry. All have more or less lively interest in the reorganization of Company D, hence it is anticipated all of these units will be represented at the meeting Sunday afternoon.

the new pastor, Rev. J. E. Edwards.

Rev. Edwards has taken the matter up with officials of the West Penn Power company and they are giving it especial consideration, because they are anxious to see this church and plans to dash forth mightily in electric signs, together with the name of the church.

That this church is in business for a New World is what Rev. Edwards

The cost of this sort costs far less than the cost of oil.

MISS MARY FURTNEY

WEIR, FRANK E. BEATTIE
Anouncement of the marriage of Miss Mary Furtney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Furtney of South Arch street, and Frank E. Beatty of Fairchance, was made at a surprise ménage-a-trois at the home of Mrs. Beatty last evening at the home of her parents by young women employees of the office of the Wright-Metzler company, where the bride had held a clerical position for some time past. Her resignation takes effect March 1. The young couple were quietly married November 11, 1919, in the Presbyterian church in Greensburg. Rev. Dr. Schaefer, the pastor, officiated. While friends of Mr. and Mrs. Beatty had heard rumors of their marriage the secret was not divulged by the bride until last night at a beautifully appointed three course luncheon at which covers for twenty were laid. A color scheme of yellow and green was charmingly carried out. The favors, which were small yellow baskets filled with candy, also contained cards bearing the names of Mr. and Mrs. Beatty. Centering the table was a gold basket of narcissi, together with a trailing box of little baskets of sweet poms were used in carrying out the attractive decorations in the parlor. Extending from a large yellow and green wedding bell, embellished with a large bow of yellow a silken, were yellow ribbons which terminated in bows at the four corners of the table. Mrs. Beatty's friends presented her with beautiful gifts, including cut glass, silver, linens, aluminum and other household articles.

The wedding is one of interest, and to many of Mr. and Mrs. Beatty's acquaintances will come as a great surprise. HIGH SCHOOL HEADS FROWN ON STUDENTS' SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Mount Pleasant Does Not Sanction Them for Persons so Young.

CANNOT INTERFERE, HOWEVER

Statement on Situation Is Issued By Principal H. H. DeLong; Miss Mary Galley Hostess to Sunday School Class Membership; Gas Supply On.

Special to the Courier
MOUNT PLEASANT, Feb. 27.—Inquiries from the Mount Pleasant schools concerning the holding of parties in the bank building under the high school banner has caused the following statement to be made to the public:

Mr. DeLong states that it is not the intention of the school organization to interfere with the social activities of the pupils, but that it, as a school organization, cannot sanction card parties and dancing for boys and girls, so young.

This is the outcome of a number of parties being held as class functions. Mr. DeLong said it is not the intention to interfere with the parties and if the members of the faculty receive invitations, they go as individual citizens and not as school heads; that students may have their parties but must not flaunt them under the high school banner.

Miss Galley Hostess.
Miss Mary Galley entertained her fellow members of the Methodist Sunday school at a party at her home in Washington street. Games were played and refreshments served.

At the Theatres:

The Paramount.
"The Flame of the Yukon"—A Thomas Iltis production, starring Dorothy Dalton, is today's feature attraction. It is a story of the frozen north when men braved the dangers and forces of nature to win gold and where before the women risked their greatest gift against man's god. The arctic land of Alaska in the days of the famous gold rush when there was "no law of God or man" in the mining camps is depicted in dramatic fashion.

The Soisson.
"Lasca"—The story of early Texas, down by the Rio Grande, when men rode the wide range and vast herds of cattle roamed the plains, is being presented today. Frank Mayo and Edith Roberts are seen in the leading roles. The story of "Lasca" is too well known for comment. There is scarcely a schoolboy who has not read it or the poem of the green streets and the open air. We feel safe in saying that the millions who admire "Lasca" as a composition, will be delighted with this picture.

The Soisson.
"Aurora of Syria"—A great photoplay which is woven around the terrible personal adventures of Aurora Mardiganian, the beautiful 17-year-old Armenian girl who escaped to America, will be shown Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. All its details, massacres and deportations of the Armenian people under Turkish rule are reproduced. Aurora will appear in person at each showing of the film and will personally tell you her story. She also takes part in the picture and the human document which gives this marvelous production its sympathetic appeal.

Payments to Policyholders Last Year
$73,000,000.

The sixteenth annual statement of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States gives evidence of the company's continued progress. Premiums, insurance, in 1919 totalled $154,338,000 and the outstanding insurance reached the $2,270,000,000 mark on December 31st. $78,000,000 was paid to policyholders and beneficiaries in death claims, and endowment and annuity dividends during the year. The average policy issued was $2,229, as against $2,742 in 1918. A large increase was made in the number of policies payable on the northward movement of the country, taken to provide business interests and to provide for inheritance taxes. Of the total new insurance issued $79,672,000 was given insurance for the protection of employees of several hundred companies and their establishments, for which all premiums were paid by the employees. Notwithstanding a heavy increase in the number of claims handled early in the year due to the influenza epidemic, not one cent of the total was paid within 24 hours after receipt of proofs of death.
